DOCUMENT No. 3.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN,

APRIL 24, 1871.

A resolution was adopted, that the Clerk of this Board be directed to have the Charter of 1870, with amendments of 1871, printed as a document of this Board.

JOHN HARDY,
Clerk.

AN ACT

To reorganize the local government of the city of New York.

Passed April 5, 1870; three fifths being present.

As amended by an act entitled "An act to make further provision for the government of the city of New York," passed April 26, 1870; and further amended by an act entitled "An act to amend an act entitled 'An act to reorganize the local government of the city of New York,' passed April fifth, eighteen hundred and seventy," passed April eighteen, eighteen hundred and seventy-one.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows :

ARTICLE FIRST.

The Corporate Powers.

SECTION 1. The corporation now existing and known Corporate name. by the name of "The Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the city of New York" shall continue to be a body politic and corporate, in fact and in name, by the same name, and shall have perpetual succession with all the grants, powers, and privileges heretofore held by the mayor, aldermen, and commonalty of the city of New York, and not modified or repealed by the provisions hereinafter made by this act.

ARTICLE SECOND.

Of Legislative Power.

SEC. 2. The legislative power of the said corporation shall continue to be vested in a board of aldermen, and a board of assistant aldermen, who together shall form the common council of the city of New York.

SEC. 3. The board of aldermen shall consist of fifteen members, to be elected upon a general ticket from the city at large.

SEC. 4. The board of assistant aldermen shall consist of one assistant alderman, to be elected in each assembly district.

SEC. 5. Such aldermen and assistant aldermen shall be elected as hereinafter provided.

SEC. 6. [As amended by sec. 10, chap. 574, laws of 1871.] The aldermen and assistant aldermen who were elected severally as such in May, eighteen hundred and seventy, and who are severally in office at the passage of this act, shall hold and are hereby continued in office until the first Monday in January which will be in the year eighteen hundred and seventy-three. There shall be aldermen and assistant aldermen elected at the general state election which will occur in the year eighteen hundred and seventy-two, and for a term of two years, and annually every two years thereafter on the day of the general state election. The said term for the aldermen and assistant aldermen shall commence on the first Monday of the January succeeding each said election. All the provisions of law relating to general elections in the city of New York, so far as they may be applicable in respect to the manner of conducting elections or to the canvass and estimate of votes, shall apply to every election for aldermen and assistant aldermen. Any vacancy in the office or offices of aldermen or assistant aldermen occurring or existing from death or resignation or any other cause or contingency before said election in eighteen hundred and seventy-two, shall be filled by the appointment of the mayor, and filed with the clerks of the respective boards.

Vacancies, how filled.

SEC. 7. Each board of the common council shall have power to direct a special election to be held to supply the place of any member whose seat shall become vacant, and the person elected to supply such vacancy shall hold his seat for the residue of the term of his immediate predecessor.

Vacancies, special election to fill.

Quorum.

SEC. 8. The boards shall meet in separate chambers, and a majority of each shall be a quorum.

Organization, powers of common council.

SEC. 9. Each board shall

1. Choose a president from its own members ;
2. Appoint a clerk and other officers ;
3. Determine the rules of its own proceedings ;
4. Be the judge of the returns of election, and the right of election and qualifications of its own members ;
5. Keep a journal of its proceedings ;
6. Sit with open doors, except when the public welfare shall require secrecy ; and
7. Shall have authority to compel the attendance of absent members ; and to punish its members for disorderly behavior ; and to expel a member with a concurrence of two thirds of the members elected to the board.

Effect of expulsion.

SEC. 10. Every member expelled from either board shall thereby forfeit all his rights and power as an alderman or assistant alderman.

Meetings.

SEC. 11. The stated and occasional meetings of each board shall be regulated by its own resolutions and rules, and both boards may meet at the same time, or on different days, as they may severally judge expedient.

SEC. 12. Every legislative act of the common council shall be by resolution or ordinance, and every ordinance or joint resolution shall, before it shall take effect, be presented, duly certified, to the mayor for his approval.

Legislative acts.

SEC. 13. The mayor shall return such ordinance or resolution to the board in which it originated, within ten days after receiving it, or at the next meeting of such board.

Mayor to return to board originating.

SEC. 14. If he approve it, he shall sign it. If he disapprove, he shall specify his objections thereto. If he do not return it with such disapproval within the time above specified, it shall take effect as if he had approved it.

Approval or disapproval.

SEC. 15. Such objections of the mayor shall be entered at large on the journal of the board to which they are sent.

Objections entered in journal.

SEC. 16. The board to which such ordinance or resolution shall have been returned with objections, shall, after the expiration of not less than ten days thereafter, proceed to reconsider the same, and if, on reconsideration, it shall pass both boards by a vote of at least three fourths of all the members elected to each board, it shall take effect. In all such cases the votes shall be taken by ayes and noes, and the names of the persons voting for or

25. In relation to the inspection, weighing, and measuring of firewood, coal, hay, and straw, and the cartage of the same.

26. In relation to the mode and manner of suing for, collecting, and disposing of the penalties provided for a violation of all ordinances.

27. And for carrying into effect and enforcing any of the powers, privileges, and rights at any time granted and bestowed upon or possessed by the said corporation.

SEC. 22. The common council shall have no power to impose taxes or assessments, or borrow money, or contract debts, or loan the credit of the city, unless specially authorized so to do by act of the legislature, and all the legislative power of the city shall be subordinate to and be exercised in conformity with such special grants, restrictions, or limitations, as are now or hereafter may be prescribed by the legislature. Restriction on powers of common council.

ARTICLE THIRD.

Of the Executive Power.

SEC. 23. The executive power of the corporation shall be vested in the mayor and the departments herein created.

SEC. 24. The mayor shall be the chief executive officer of the corporation; shall be elected at a general election, and hold his office for the term of two years, commencing on the first day of January next after his election. The first election for mayor shall be at the general election in November, in the year eighteen hundred and seventy.

SEC. 25. Whenever the mayor shall be under impeachment or there shall be a vacancy in the office of the mayor, or whenever by sickness, absence from the city, or other cause, he shall be prevented from attending to the duties of his office, the president of the board of aldermen shall act as mayor, and possess all the rights and powers of mayor, except as hereinafter provided in regard to appointments to office during such disability, or, in case of a vacancy, until the next general election. But it shall not be lawful for the president of the board of aldermen, when acting as mayor, to sign or approve of any ordinance or resolution of the common council, unless the sickness, disability, or absence of the mayor shall have continued at least ten days.

SEC. 66. [As amended by sec. 25, chap. 383, laws of 1870.] The board of metropolitan police shall, immediately upon the passage of this act, ascertain, state, and declare, what portion of the police life insurance fund, and of the reward fund, respectively, of the said metropolitan police, belongs to, or should be set apart for, the police of the city of New York; and upon such statement being made, a division of such fund shall be made, and the amount so found to be the portion of the police of the city of New York shall be paid over to the chamberlain of the city of New York, as trustee, for the benefit of the police of the city of New York, as contemplated in the creation of said funds. All fines imposed by the board of police upon the members of the police force, by way of discipline, and collectible from pay or salary, and all rewards, fees, proceeds of gifts, and emoluments that may be paid and given for account of extraordinary services of any member of the police force (except when allowed to be retained by said member), and all moneys remaining for the space of two years in the hands of the property-clerk, or arising from the sale of unclaimed goods, and all proceeds of suits for penalties under this act, shall be deposited and paid into the bank wherein the chamberlain shall keep an account. The payments so made shall constitute and be deposited and kept as a fund, to be called the "police life insurance fund," and the person who shall, from time to time, fill the office of chamberlain, shall be the trustee of the said fund, and may, from time to time, invest the same, in whole or in part, as he shall deem most advantageous for the objects of such fund, and is empowered to make all necessary contracts and take all necessary remedies in the premises. And the said chamberlain shall succeed the present trustees of the police life insurance fund of the metropolitan police department, and said fund shall be delivered over, on demand, to the said chamberlain by the parties or the institution now holding it. But all annuities now

SEC. 67. The board of metropolitan police shall also immediately ascertain what interest the city and county of New York has in any property used for general police purposes of said district, within the other counties of the metropolitan police district, in order to a future adjustment thereof.

Stolen property to be kept by property-
clerk.

SEC. 68. All property or money alleged or supposed to have been feloniously obtained, or which shall be lost or abandoned, and which shall be hereafter taken into the custody of any member of the police force, or criminal court in the city of New York, or which shall come into custody of any police justice, shall be, by such member or justice, or by order of said court, given into the custody of and kept by the property-clerk of the police, and all such property and money shall be particularly registered by said property-clerk in a book kept for that purpose, which shall contain also a record of the names of the persons from whom such property or money was taken, the names of all claimants thereto, the time of the seizure, and any final disposition of such property and money.

SEC. 69. Whenever property or money shall be taken from persons arrested, and shall be alleged to have been feloniously obtained, or to be the proceeds of crime, and whenever so brought, with such claimant and the person arrested, before some magistrate for adjudication, and the magistrate shall be then and there satisfied from evidence that the person arrested is innocent of the offence alleged, and that the property rightfully belongs to him, then said magistrate may thereupon, in writing, order such property or money to be returned, and the property-clerk, if he have it, to deliver such property or money to the accused person himself, and not to any attorney, agent, or clerk of such accused person.

in the custody of the property-clerk until the discharge or conviction of the persons accused.

To be registered and advertised.

SEC. 71. All property or money taken on suspicion of having been feloniously obtained, or of being the proceeds of crime, and for which there is no other claimant than the person from whom such property was taken, and all lost property coming into the possession of any member of the said police force, and all property and money taken from pawnbrokers as the proceeds of crime, or by any such member from persons supposed to be insane, intoxicated, or otherwise incapable of taking care of themselves, shall be transmitted, as soon as practicable, to the property-clerk, to be duly registered and advertised for the benefit of all persons interested, and for the information of the public, as to the amount and disposition of the property so taken into custody by the police.

When to be sold.

SEC. 72. All property and money that shall remain in the custody of the property-clerk for the period of six months without any lawful claimant thereto, after having been three times advertised in public newspapers, shall be sold at public auction, and the proceeds of such sale shall be paid into the police life insurance fund.

Disposition of proceeds of.

May be used as evidence.

SEC. 73. If any property or money placed in the custody of the property-clerk shall be desired as evidence in any police or other criminal court, such property shall be delivered to any officer who shall present an order to that effect from such court; such property, however, shall not be retained in said court, but shall be returned to said property-clerk, to be disposed of according to the previous provisions of this act.

SEC. 74. Upon the appointment of the commissioners of police first mentioned in this act, or a majority of them, they shall organize as the board of police of the police department of the city of New York, and the board of metropolitan police shall, on demand, turn over to the board of police hereby created all the property, real and personal, and books and records in the use or possession of said board of metropolitan police, within the limits of the city and county of New York, for the use and purposes of the police department by this act established; and the said board of police of the police department of the city of New York are hereby authorized and empowered, immediately upon entering upon the duties of their office, to take possession of the same for such uses and purposes, and to hold the same, subject to the control and superior title therein of the city and county of New York. Immediately upon the passage of this act, the treasurer of the metropolitan police department shall make to the comptroller of the city of New York a detailed statement of all the property, real and personal, belonging to the metropolitan police department in the city and county of New York. If any proportion of the cost of any such property shall have been borne by the metropolitan police district at large, the proportion paid by each county of such metropolitan police district, for such property, shall be stated. And the comptroller of the city of New York shall report such proportionate expense, borne by other counties, to the supervisors of the county of New York, and said supervisors shall cause to be levied and raised upon the estates, real and personal, in such county, subject by law to taxation, in the year eighteen hundred and seventy, such amount as may be necessary to reimburse such other counties such proportion, and shall thereafter immediately make such reimbursement.

Other counties to be reimbursed.

State treasurer to turn over money to comptroller.

SEC. 75. The moneys raised in the city and county of New York for the proportion of the said city and county, of the expenses of the metropolitan police district remaining unexpended, shall be paid over by the officer or officers in whose hands soever the same may be, to the comptroller of the city of New York immediately upon the passage of this act; and it shall be the duty of the treasurer of this state to transmit all such moneys remaining in the state treasury to the comptroller of said city. The moneys so coming into the hands of the comptroller of the city of New York shall be applied first to the expenses incurred and remaining unpaid, if any there be, on account of the metropolitan police in the city and county of New York, and then to the payment of the expenses of the police department created by this act, as from time to time may be necessary. The board of police hereby established shall annually, on or before the first day of December, make an estimate of the sum of money which will be required for expenses necessary to the administration and conduct of the board of police for the year next ensuing, and shall submit such estimate to the mayor, comptroller, and president of the said board of police, who shall, on or before the fifteenth day of December, consider and revise such estimate, and shall fix and determine the amount which said board of police shall be authorized to expend during such year, and such amount, when established by said mayor, comptroller, and president of the board of police, shall thereby become appropriated. The amount thus established shall be certified to the board of supervisors of the county of New York by the comptroller, and the said board of supervisors are empowered and directed annually to cause the amount thereof to be, according to law, raised and collected by tax upon the estates, real and personal, subject to taxation within the said city and county of New York. The comptroller, from time to time, is authorized to borrow upon revenue bonds, accord-

Powers of metropolitan board, when to cease.

SEC. 76. Upon notice to the board of metropolitan police by the commissioners first appointed under this act, of their appointment and qualification, the powers and duties of the said board of metropolitan police, and of the officers of the said board (except as herein provided), shall cease and be no longer operative within the city and county of New York. All powers and duties of the board of metropolitan police and of the members of the metropolitan police force, heretofore exercised according to law, and all the provisions of law which related to the police of the metropolitan police district, so far as they are not respectively in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this act, are hereby devolved upon the police department herein created and upon the police force hereby established, and shall be extended and applied to the police and police department created by this act.

Devolved upon police department

§ 18. [Of chap. 383, laws of 1870.] The police department [created by the act entitled "An act to reorganize the local government of the city of New York," passed April fifth, eighteen hundred and seventy,] is hereby authorized and empowered in its name, or in the name of its president or treasurer, to take and prosecute any appropriate action or proceeding in any court of record, which the board of police of the metropolitan police district or its treasurer, or any other public officer or officers, but for the passage of said act, and of any other act passed since the first of January, eighteen hundred and seventy, could have taken and prosecuted, to compel the county of Richmond, or the board of supervisors of that county, or any other officer of that county, to make payment of the sums due from and owing by said county of Richmond, by reason of the failure of said county and its officers to pay to the said board of metropolitan police, or to the treasurer of said board of police, or into the treasury of the state, the moneys required to pay the salaries and compensation of the members of the police force of the metropolitan police district, doing duty in said county of Richmond, and defray the other lawful expenses of said police force, chargeable upon the said county of Richmond, as specified in the annual financial estimates heretofore made by the said board of metropolitan police, and all moneys that may be so collected shall be paid to the chamberlain of the city of New York; the moneys so due and owing, having been advanced by the said board of metro-fund.

§ 19. [Of chap. 383, laws of 1870.] As an addition to the sources of income of the police life insurance fund of the police force of New York city, there shall be taken monthly, out of the moneys deducted from the pay of members of said police force, on account of lost time, a sum calculated at the rate of fifty cents per month for each member of such force, which sum shall be paid to the chamberlain of the city of New York, and invested by him as part of the police life insurance fund of the police of New York city. Such portion of the "metropolitan reward fund" as shall belong or be awarded to the city of New York in the division thereof, shall be paid over to the chamberlain of the city of New York as trustee of the police life insurance fund, and shall be and become a part of said last-named fund and be invested as such. The board of police of the police department of the city of New York shall have power in their discretion (whenever in their opinion the interests of the department will be benefited thereby), by resolution to be adopted by a unanimous vote and expressing thereon such opinion, to dismiss from office in such police department, any captain or sergeant, and place the person so dismissed on the pension roll of said police life insurance fund, and allow him an annual retiring pension of (not exceeding in amount) one half the annual salary or compensation of such office. And said board may in like manner dismiss from office in said department any patrolman, and place the person so dismissed upon the said pension roll, and allow him an annual retiring pension of not exceeding four hundred dollars per annum. All work to be done or supplies to be furnished, or other expenditure made for or on behalf of the said police department, shall be done, furnished, or made by the commissioners of said department, who shall provide the necessary station and sub-station houses, and establish such regulations for furnishing such supplies and performing such work as they shall order, as in their judgment they may deem necessary and proper, and the money required for such purposes and all other sums required for the department shall be estimated for, and raised, in the manner provided by section seventy-five of the act entitled "An act to reorganize the local government of the city of New York," passed April fifth, eighteen hundred and seventy. The amounts required, from time to time, by the said department, shall be paid by the comptroller of said city, on the requisition of the treasurer of said department, as ordered by the board thereof, but according to modes and forms to be prescribed by the finance department, under the provisions of law creating the same. Each commissioner of police, the superintendent thereof, and the chief clerk and deputy thereof, are authorized and empowered to administer oaths and affirmations in all matters pertaining to the department or the duties of any officer. Any wilful and corrupt swearing by any person to any material fact before either of said officers, shall be deemed perjury, and punished in the manner now provided by law for such offences. The treasurer of the board of police shall give a bond, with two sureties, in the sum of twenty thousand dollars each, for the faithful performance of his duties, said bond to be approved by the comptroller, and filed in his office. The said treasurer shall receive an annual salary of fifteen hundred dollars, in addition to the amount provided for salary as a member of the board of police.

§ 20. [Of chap. 383, laws of 1870.] The board of police shall have authority to increase the force from time to time, as public necessity shall require, not exceeding one hundred patrolmen in addition to the number now authorized by law; and said board of police shall detail from the force, to be under the direction of the mayor, not exceeding twenty men, to enforce the ordinances of the corporation. The board of police are hereby authorized and directed to perform all the duties required and designated to be performed by the commissioners of metropolitan police, applicable to the city of New York, by chapter seven hundred and forty, laws of eighteen hundred and sixty-five, and by the unrepealed provisions of chapter eight hundred and twelve, laws of eighteen hundred and sixty-six, amendatory thereof.

Board of police to perform all duties under registry laws of 1865 and 1866.

ARTICLE EIGHTH.

Of the Department of Public Works.

SEC. 77. There shall be a department of public works, the head or chief officer of which shall be called "commissioner of public works," who shall be appointed by the mayor, and hold office for four years, and who shall receive a salary equal to that now or lately designated by statute or ordinance to the street commissioner. Whenever the words chief engineer of the Croton aqueduct board, or president of the Croton aqueduct board, or street commissioner shall occur in any existing law, ordinance, resolution, contract, or document, it shall be deemed to mean the aforesaid commissioner of public works, and wherever in any law or in any ordinance or obligation of

SEC. 97. There shall be a department called the "department of buildings," the chief officer of which shall be called the "superintendent of buildings," who shall be appointed by the mayor for a term of five years, and who shall receive an annual salary of seventy-five hundred dollars. The powers and duties of said department, its officers and employes and subordinates, shall continue as now authorized by special laws (except as modified or repealed by this act), in relation to buildings in the city of New York.

SEC. 98. Whenever in any act the words "department for the survey and inspection of buildings," or "superintendent of buildings" shall occur, applicable to the city of New York, the same shall be taken to mean the department of buildings and the superintendent of buildings herein authorized.

ARTICLE FOURTEENTH.

Of the Department of Docks.

SEC. 99. [As amended by sec. 6, chap. 574, laws of Department of docks. 1871.] 1. There shall be a department of docks, the head of which shall be a board consisting of five Board of appointments and terms. persons residing in the city of New York, to be appointed by the mayor, who shall hold office for the term of five years, and shall possess such powers Powers, duties, and salary. and perform such duties and receive such compensation as shall be established and defined by the commissioners of the sinking fund of the city of New York. But the persons appointed such commissioners by the mayor during the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy are hereby continued in office for the respective terms for which they were appointed.

2. The department of docks in the city of New To control all wharf property, &c. York shall have exclusive charge and control, subject in the particulars hereinafter mentioned to the Subject to commissioners of sinking fund. commissioners of the sinking fund of said city, of all the wharf property belonging to the corporation of the city of New York, including all the wharves, piers, bulkheads, and structures thereon, and waters adjacent thereto, and all the slips, basins, docks, water-fronts, land under water, and structures thereon, and the appurtenances, easements, uses, reversions, and rights belonging thereto, which are now owned or possessed by the said corporation, or to which said corporation is or may become entitled, or which said corporation may acquire under the provisions hereof, or otherwise; and said department shall have exclusive charge and control of the repairing, building, rebuilding, maintaining, altering, strengthening, leasing, and protecting said property and every part thereof, and of all the cleaning, dredging, and deepening necessary in and about the same. Said department is also hereby invested with the exclusive government and regulation of all wharves, piers, bulkheads, and structures thereon, and waters adjacent thereto, and all the basins, slips, and docks, with the land under water in said city not owned by said corporation. The duties and powers heretofore performed and exercised by any officer, department, or bureau of the said corporation in and about all or any part of the said property are hereby transferred to and vested exclusively in the said department; but this provision shall not affect the aforesaid powers of the commissioners of the sinking fund.

Time of examination of plans.

3. Said board of the said department of docks shall meet and examine the plans prepared under their direction from time to time, and shall, on or before the first day of May, eighteen hundred and seventy-one, determine upon any one of said plans for the whole or any part of said water-front, or may in its discretion cause a new plan to be made combining the separate features of any two or more plans, and determine upon such new plan. And said board shall, when it has determined upon any plan or plans for the whole or any part of said water-front, send such plan or plans so determined upon, together with all documents, specifications, estimates, and particulars relating thereto, to the commissioners of the sinking fund, who may adopt or reject any such plan or plans. If any such plan be rejected by said commissioners of the sinking fund, the said board shall send another plan in place thereof to said commissioners. The plan or plans adopted by the said commissioners of the sinking fund shall be returned by them to the said board, with a certificate of such adoption written thereon, which certificate shall specify the territory or district which said plan shall cover and control, and said plan and certificate shall be filed in the office of said board and be open to public inspection, and shall from the time of such adoption be the sole plan according to which any wharf, pier, bulkhead, basin, dock, or slip, or any wharf, struc-

property for public streets or places in said city are hereby made applicable, as far as may be necessary, to the acquiring of the said property, rights, terms, easements, and privileges, and said board is also empowered to acquire in like manner the title to such lands under water and uplands as shall seem to said board necessary to be taken for the improvement of the water-front.

Proceedings after the adoption of plans.

5. When the plan or plans mentioned in subdivision three of this section of this act have been adopted by the commissioners of the sinking fund, as provided in said subdivision three of this section, the said board of the department of docks shall proceed, according to said plan or plans, to lay out, establish, and construct wharves, piers, bulkheads, basins, docks, or slips, in the territory or district embraced in such plan or plans, and in and upon or about the property owned by the mayor, aldermen, and commonalty of the city of New York, without interfering with the property or rights of any other person, except so far as may be necessary to insure the safety and stability of the wharves, piers, bulkheads, basins, or slips so to be constructed. And said board may commence such construction in sections of said territory or district, from time to time, so as not to seriously incommode

6. When any of the wharves, piers, bulkheads, slips, docks, and basins constructed under the provisions of this act relating thereto shall be open to the public use, the said board of the department of docks shall regulate the charges for wharfage and dockage of all vessels admitted thereto, and may alter such charges from time to time as the public trade may authorize and the said board deem proper; provided that the rates of wharfage on boats navigating the canals of the State shall not be increased beyond the present rates, and no restriction of the amount of wharf and slip room occupied by them shall be made; and said board may appropriate any of such wharves, piers, bulkheads, basins, or slips to the sole use of special kinds of commerce, and may in the name and for the benefit of the corporation of said city lease any or all of such property, for a term not exceeding ten years, and covenant for renewal or renewals, at advanced rents, of such leases for terms of ten years each, but not exceeding in the aggregate fifty years. All leases other than for districts appropriated by said board to special commercial interests shall be made at public auction to the highest bidder. All leases made by said board shall contain covenants on the part of the lessees to make all needful repairs upon or about the property leased, and to maintain and keep in good condition the property leased during the term of the lease, under the penalty of forfeiture of such lease and damages. X

The penalties aforesaid may be recovered by suit in the name of the mayor, aldermen, and commonalty of the city of New York, and such suit shall be prosecuted by the counsel to the said corporation when directed by said board; and no defendant in any such suit shall be permitted to plead ignorance of any such order, rule, or regulation. All rents, fines, and penalties and other money collected by said board or by its direction, shall belong to the treasury of said city, and be paid into the sinking fund for the redemption of the city debt. Any three members of said board shall be a quorum for the transaction of any business of said board. Said board shall hold stated meetings, to be specified in by-laws which said board shall prepare and may alter from time to time.

8. The members of said board of the department of docks shall meet and organize as a board, by electing one of said members to be president thereof. The said board shall have power to hire, for a term of not more than ten years, an office or offices in said city, and furnish and supply the same for the transaction of the business of the board, and shall appoint a secretary and such subordinate officers, clerks, and agents as shall be necessary to assist said board in the performance of its duties and the exercise of its powers, and may fix the compensation of all persons so appointed ; but the annual expenses of said board, for rent, furniture, supplies, and compensation of secretary and subordinate officers, clerks, and agents, shall not exceed in the aggregate the sum of one hundred thousand dollars. The president of said board shall be elected annually by the members thereof, and shall preside at all meetings of said board, and in case of his absence a temporary president may be elected by the board to preside. The board shall, in its by-laws, prescribe the duties of its secretary and of all the aforesaid subordinate officers, agents, or clerks, and may remove all persons appointed by said board, and appoint others in their places. Any member may resign his office by written resignation sent to the mayor of the city of New York. When any member of said board shall cease to reside in the city of New York his office as a member of said board shall become vacant. said board shall be interested, directly or indirectly, in any contract, lease, bargain, purchase, or agreement made by said board, under penalty of removal from office, and a violation of this prohibition shall be a misdemeanor and punishable as such.

Reports

9. The said board of the department of docks shall annually present to the mayor of said city a report containing: 1. The name, occupation, and compensation of all persons appointed and employed by said board. 2. A statement of the action of the board for the past year, classified with reference to the various subjects and duties which have engaged the attention of the board. 3. A list of the orders and rules made by said board, and a description of the contracts made by said board, the payments made by said board, and the purposes and amounts thereof, and the leases made by said board, for what term, at what rent, to whom, and for what property.

How
published

10. The advertisements and publications provided in the provisions of this act relating to the department of docks to be made by said board of said department, shall be made in not more than five daily and five weekly newspapers published in said city, and at such rates as the said board may agree upon with such newspapers, and for such times, except where the time is specially provided in the provisions of this act relating thereto, as the said board may deem proper. The commissioners of the land office are hereby authorized to convey by proper instruments in writing, necessary for the purpose, all the property, right, title, and interest of the people of the state of New York in and to the land under water used and taken by the said board for the construction of wharves, docks, piers, bulkheads, basins, and slips under this act, whenever said commissioners may be required by said board to make such conveyance to the mayor, aldermen, and commonalty of the city of New York.

of docks, its powers and duties; and the supervisors of the county of New York shall raise annually, by tax upon the estates in said county subject to taxation, a sum equal to the annual interest upon so much of said bonds as shall have been issued, and shall raise in like manner, when said bonds shall fall due, a sum sufficient to pay the principal of said bonds. But not more than three millions of dollars of said bonds shall be issued in any one year, and none of said bonds shall be sold for less than the par value thereof. The moneys received from sales of said bonds shall be deposited in the treasury of the city of New York, and shall be drawn out and paid by the comptroller of said city for the several objects and purposes provided in this act, relating to the said department, its powers and duties, upon the requisition of the said board of the department of docks, countersigned by the commissioners of the sinking fund. The expenses and compensation of said board, its rent, the compensation of its appointees, the purchase-money and damages awarded under subdivision four of this section of this act upon the acquisition of private property, the payments under the contracts mentioned in subdivision five of this section of this act, and for work performed under said section, and all other expenses and disbursements necessarily incurred in partment of docks, its powers and duties, shall not affect the powers of the captain of the port and harbor masters of the port of New York, or those of the port wardens of the port of New York, as the same are now defined by law, provided that said board of the department of docks may remove or direct the removal of any vessel, raft, or float from any place where the same shall be moored or anchored, whenever they shall deem such removal necessary for the convenient prosecution of any work undertaken and being done by them.

ARTICLE FIFTEENTH.

Of the Department of Public Instruction.

Department of public instruction.

§ 100. [As amended by sec. 7, chap. 574, laws of 1871.] 1. There shall be in the government of the city of New York an additional department, to be called the department of public instruction, which shall under that designation have the same powers and discharge the same duties which are now vested in the board of education in said city, when such department shall be duly organized under this section.

2. The terms of office of the present commissioners of common schools of the city of New York shall end and their official functions cease at the expiration of ten days from the passage of this act. The mayor of said city shall within five days from and after the passage of this act appoint twelve commissioners of said department of public instruction, recognizing in said appointment the principle of representation of the minority imposed upon the mayor in the appointments made by him under chapter four hundred and thirty-seven of the laws of eighteen hundred and sixty-nine. Said commissioners shall enter on their duties at the expiration of ten days from the passage of this act in the places of the present commissioners of common schools whose terms of office are terminated as above provided. The said commissioners of the department of public instruction so appointed shall possess and succeed to all the powers and perform and succeed to all the duties of commissioners of common schools of said city, and shall constitute a board, and as such board be at the head of the said department of public instruction for said city and county, and shall hold their offices until the thirty-first day of December, eighteen hundred and seventy-six, and the board shall be known as the board of public instruction. 3. All provisions of law providing for the election of trustees of common schools are hereby repealed. Every such trustee who shall be now in office under election shall, however, serve out the full term for which he shall have been elected. Within twenty days before the expiration of the term of office of any such trustee who shall be in office by election, or upon the occurrence of any vacancy in the office of said trustee, the mayor of the city shall appoint his successor. Upon any appointment, whether by expiration of term or to fill vacancy, by the said mayor, it shall be for the term of five years from the time of the expiration of term or time of filling vacancy. The trustees so appointed shall possess and exercise all the powers and duties of trustees of common schools under existing laws.

Powers and duties.

4. Inspectors of common schools shall be hereafter appointed by the mayor for the same terms of office now provided to such inspectors. All vacancies in the office of inspectors of common schools shall be filled by the said mayor, and for a full term of office.

in any department of the city government, and also of the board for the revision and correction of assessments, shall constitute a quorum to fully perform and discharge any act or duty authorized, possessed by, or imposed upon any department or any board aforesaid, and with the same legal effect as if every member of any such board aforesaid had been present. Each board may choose, in its own pleasure, one of its members to preside at board meetings, and may appoint a chief clerk. No expense shall be incurred by any of the departments, boards, or officers thereof, whether the object of expenditure shall have been ordered by the common council or not, unless an appropriation shall have been previously made covering such expense. The mayor, the comptroller, the commissioner of public works, and the president of the department of public parks of the city of New York shall, and are hereby directed on or before the first day of December in each and every year hereafter, and immediately for the current year, being the year eighteen hundred and seventy-one, and in lieu of and superseding existing authority in relation hereto, to make and agree upon an estimate of the various sums of money which, in their discretion, will be required to defray all the various expenses necessary for conducting the various

The city of New York is hereby excepted from the provisions of an act entitled an act to establish a metropolitan police district, and to provide for the government thereof, passed April fifteenth, eighteen hundred and fifty-seven, and of the acts amendatory thereof, and any sections of statutes and provisions of law which created said district are hereby repealed; and the city of New York is also hereby excepted from the provisions of the act entitled an act to create a metropolitan sanitary district and board of health therein for the preservation of life and health, and to prevent spread of disease, passed February twenty-sixth, eighteen hundred and sixty-six, and of the acts amendatory thereof, and any sections of statutes and provisions of law which created said district are hereby repealed; and the city of New York is also hereby excepted from the provisions of an act entitled an act to create a metropolitan fire district, and establish a fire department therein, passed March thirtieth, eighteen hundred and sixty-five, and the acts amendatory thereof, and any sections of statutes and provisions of law which created said district are hereby repealed. The act to amend the charter of the city of New York, passed April seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty; and the act to amend the charter of the city of New York, passed April second, eighteen hundred and forty-nine; and the act to amend an act entitled an act to amend the charter of the city of New York, passed April second, eighteen hundred and forty-nine, passed July eleventh, eighteen hundred and fifty-one; and the act further to amend the charter of the city of New York, passed April twelfth, eighteen hundred and fifty-three; and the act supplementary to an act entitled an act further to amend the charter of the city of New York, passed April twelfth, eighteen hundred and fifty-three, passed June fourteenth, eighteen hundred and fifty-three; and the act to amend the charter of the city of New York, passed April fourteen, eighteen hundred and fifty-seven; and the act relative to the charter of the city of New York, passed April three, eighteen hundred and sixty-three; and the act to amend the charter of the city of New York, passed repealed.

August thirty-one, eighteen hundred and sixty-eight, are hereby repealed; and all acts, or parts of acts, inconsistent with the provisions of this act, are also hereby repealed; but the charters of the city of New York, known as the Dongan and Montgomerie charters, so far as the same or either of them are now in force, shall continue and remain in full force, and shall not be construed as repealed, modified, or in any manner affected thereby. This section shall not prejudice or affect any right accrued or legal proceeding commenced by reason of any thing contained in the acts hereby repealed, and so accrued and commenced before this act takes effect; nor shall this section be so construed as to abrogate or repeal any provisions of acts heretofore enacted, which acts provide in any way for the raising or collecting of revenues in the city of New York, commonly called tax levies.

Dongan and Montgomerie charters to remain in force.

Accrued rights, &c., reserved.

Provisions of tax laws not abrogated.

SEC. 121. This act shall take effect immediately.
